

Square Medical Group

H.I.P.A.A. Summary

Square Medical Group may use or disclose a patient's protected health information to carry out his/her treatment, to obtain payments from insurance companies (if applicable), and for health care operations such as quality reviews.

Square Medical Group has the right to change their privacy practices. A patient may obtain any revised notices at the practice.

A patient has the right to request a restriction of how his/her protected health information is used. However, Square Medical Group is not required to agree to the request. If Square Medical Group agrees to a requested restriction, they must follow the restriction(s).

A patient may revoke this consent at any time by making a request in writing. This would not apply to any information already used or disclosed.

Information disclosed at this facility is protected by Federal Confidentiality rules (42 CFR, Part 2) and H.I.P.A.A. A recipient of medical information may not further disclose this information without obtaining further disclosures.